FOUNDING FOR DALLAS

Greenville Congregation Remembers Pastor and His Family.

The ladies of Greenville church remembered their pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Dallas, by giving them a very fine pound cake last Monday evening, and wishing them a very happy New Year. These kind friends completely filled the pantry with every good thing in the way of eating, and crowned it all by presenting to the pastor and his wife a splendid Christmas cake beautifully decorated. It was a delightful surprise party and folks in the manse will not soon forget the kindness of their people. The church has always remembered the pastor at this happy season of the year by pounding him and his family for the past ten years. The following ladies composed the deputation from the congregation: Mesdames: W. D. Brownlee, W. S. Jordan, Lily Gordon, W. J. McKee, Harvey Drake, and Misses Lizzie Jordan and Mary Jordan.

MARSHAL LYON MAY YET HOLD TO JOB

Lewis Wood sends the Columbia Record the following despatch:

"Washington, Jan. 1.—It is learned that Charles J. Lyon, marshal for the western district of South Carolina, has a chance of remaining in office until his unexpired term is out. However, this depends on whether or not Mr. Lyon has placed himself in the attitude of defying the department by stating he would fight the former attempt to remove him without formal charges being filed against him. Lately some newspaper clippings have been received at the department which indicated that Mr. Lyon was in no mild frame of mind. This attitude has not found favor with the powers that be, and they are now trying to find out if Mr. Lyon was correctly quoted. If they find that he was, the indications are that they will try to make short shift of him. If Mr. Lyon was not correctly quoted, there seems to be a chance of his serving out his term which does not expire until March, 1923.

At the same time, it was ascertained that no movement is on foot to oust Francis W. Weston, federal attorney for the eastern district. Mr. Weston's term expires in March, 1922, and to all intents he will remain in office until that time."

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE WATTS UNDERGOES OPERATION

Columbia, Jan. 3.—Associate Justice R. C. Stumbling Along.

The Argonaut.
A tiresome lawyer, in arguing a complicated case, had looked up authorities dating back to Julius Caesar. He had dilated on his subject for more than an hour and a half, when he was pained to observe what seemed to him inattention on the bench. It was as he had feared—his worship was unable to appreciate the nice points of the argument.

"Begging your honor's pardon," he said, "but do you follow me?"
The magistrate's shifted uneasily in his chair. "I have so far," he answered, "but if I thought I could find my way back alone, I'd turn around now."

Raymond and Ralph Beauford spent several days last week with Eugene Beauford.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beauford spent Tuesday in Troy with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hall spent Thursday in Troy with Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

The house was beautifully decorated with evergreen, fern and roses. After the ceremony was performed refreshments of charlotte russe and cake were served by Mrs. Lewis Beauford, Mrs. Joe Link and Mrs. J. M. Fortescue. Mrs. McNeill is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Metts and has many friends here who wish them a long and happy life.

PRIVACY TO MARK PENROSE FUNERAL

OFT EXPRESSED WISH TO BE OBSERVED BY FAMILY—MANY COMMITTEE REARRANGEMENT MADE NECESSARY BY SENATOR'S DEATH.

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—Arrangements for the funeral of Senator Penrose were still incomplete today. It was definitely decided, however, that it should be strictly private, in accordance with his oft-expressed wish.

In making this announcement, Leighton C. Taylor, for many years the senator's private secretary, said that only members of the family and friends would attend the service, and that a congressional delegation probably would not come here for the burial. The date for burial would be fixed, Mr. Taylor said, after hearing from relatives in the West.

Meanwhile the body of the former senator encoased in a metallic casket covered with purple cloth, lay in his bachelor home here. No crepe or flowers marked the presence of death in the old-fashioned brick house where from a sick bed he had conferred by telephone with national Republican leaders at the Chicago convention which nominated President Harding. Every wish of the senator for simplicity has been respected.

Expressions of regret at his death continued to pour in today from all sections of the country. None of them was made public by his relatives.

Governor Sproul said he had not decided upon Senator Penrose's successor. Under the law the governor is empowered to make an appointment to fill the vacancy until the next general election, which will be held November.

D.W. GRIFFITH
Presents
WAY DOWN EAST

Based on Wm. A. Brady's Famous Play
by Lottie Blair Parker and Jos. R. Grismer

A simple, old-fashioned story of plain people, embracing the four seasons.
A story of loves—Man and Woman—Mother and Baby.
A great bell tolling Humanity.
A story of laughter—Rabelaisian horseplay.
Quaint absurdities—springing, gay barn dances—sleigh bells a-jingling.
Love's voice—sweet and low—strong and tender—across fragrant fields and twilight streams.
In the end, amazing scenes, March storm, ice break-up, Anna and David carried with blinding mass of ice down the roaring river.
